BURTON SELLS HOME

Deal Reported This Morning Bank Employees In Dark

Considerable mystery seems to surround a reported transfer of property between F. P. Hixon and G. W. Burton, two officials of the First National bank, in which the latter sells to the former his home on South Fifteenth street.

Over the telephone the Tribune learned that both the parties above named were not at the bank and were out of the city. The employee who answered the phone was then asked if he had heard about the transfer. He said he believed that such a deal had been made, and called an official of the bank to give out details.

The latter claimed to know nothing of any transfer of property between Mr. Hixon and Mr. Burton. Upon being informed that the man who preceded him at the phone evidently knew of some such deal, he volunteered the further information that he did not believe the employee knew of any such transfer being made.

Mr. Burton announced last week, at the time the report that he was going with the First National bank of Milwaukee, was going the rounds, that he intended to remain in La Crosse. Nevertheless the absence from the city of both Mr. Hixon and Mr. Burton and the effort of the bank to keep details of the property transfer out of the papers, may have some significance.

It is understood the property transferred is the home of Mr. Burton on Fifteenth street of which Mr. Hixon now secures possession. The deed had not been filed at the register of deeds' office this afternoon.

WANT U. S. COURT

La Crosse Attorneys Say This District is Being Cheated

WANT MARSHAL TOO

Are Tired of Trips to Madison and Will Unite in Petition.

La Crosse attorneys will unite in an effort to have a United States marshal located in La Crosse, and through Judge Sanborn to secure the trial in La Crosse of all United States court cases emanating from this district.

Local attorneys have been of the opinion for some time that this district was being cheated out of its share of the United States court cases. Two short terms of United States court every year have sufficed to handle all the business which was allowed to remain here, and these terms seldom extend over more than three or four days. In every possible instance, local attorneys say, cases are tried in Madison instead of in the district where they are started. The lawyers here have come to the decision that this city is entitled to all the western district business, and will make demands upon the proper authorities that these cases all be tried here.

Attorneys will also ask for a United States deputy marshal in this district with headquarters in La Crosse. Under present conditions attorneys here have to send to Madison for a marshal and pay about $25 in fees and traveling expenses in order to get any papers served in this city in United States court business. Judge Sanborn will be seen regarding the matter by a delegation of local attorneys and United States Marshal Lewiston will also be talked with.

WITTE'S MISSION IS TO HEAR JAPAN'S PROPOSALS

RUSSIAN ENVOY ARRIVES AND DENIES WIRELESS MESSAGE

Compliments U. S.—The Czar is Sincere in Desire for Peace

New York, Aug. 3.—M. de Witte, the Russian peace plenipotentiary, on his arrival here emphatically denied having said that Japan's peace terms were intolerable. He also denied positively that he had predicted that the conference would break up in a week. The statement denied was sent by a New York Herald correspondent by wireless telegraph from the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse route to this port.

Thanks for Friendly Greetings.
When the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse arrived at her pier De Witte handed to Professor de Martens a statement, which Professor de Martens read aloud. The statement begins: "For the friendly greetings of the American newspapers upon my first visit to the hospitable shores of the United States I offer my heartfelt thanks. This kind attention touches me all the more profoundly because I realize the vastness of the power wielded by the press of the United States and admire the keen intelligence with which it is uniformly directed. I am glad to be able to add that I also appreciate the ethical worth of the aims for the attainment of which that power is so often and so successfully employed."

His Mission to the United States.
He said that it was to the efforts of the people of the United States for peace that his visit was attributable, and continued: "For it is in compliance with the American people's desire for peace, of which President Roosevelt was the authorized exponent, that his majesty the czar has empowered me to come hither and ascertain the conditions which our gallant adversary deems necessary and adequate as a basis for peace negotiations."

DIPLOMATIC USAGE WAIVED
Evidence That the Czar is Sincere in His Desire for Peace.

He declared it his evident desire that "the two chivalrous foes" might ripen their acquaintanceship, first made on the field of battle, into lasting friendship, and then said: "Meanwhile, however, the terms offered must first be ascertained, weighed and judged admissible by Russia before she can proceed to formal negotiations. Hitherto, as you are aware, it was customary in cases like this to settle all such preliminaries before the meeting of the plenipotentiaries, whose task it was to come to a final agreement on the matters under discussion."

"Now the very fact that his majesty the czar consented to take a course involving departure from this ancient diplomatic usage, and to appoint a mission to learn the nature of our brave enemy's terms, is an eloquent token of the friendly feeling which he and his subjects continued to cherish towards the people of the United States."

"It is in virtue of that sincere desire [to strengthen the ties of friendship with the United States] that his majesty the czar, waiving all other considerations, has unhesitatingly accepted the cordial invitation of your first citizen and genial leader. And if my mission should prove in all other respects barren, and the endeavor to find a common basis for peace negotiations should fail for the time being, the signal proof of friendship given by his majesty the czar and the Russian nation would still stand out as a memorable event fraught, I trust, with far-reaching and beneficent results to the two great peoples of the west and the east."

H. BURGESS APPOINTED JEWELERS' AGENTS

Winona Sheriff Pursues an Alleged Traveling Man to Dakota, Minn. And Captures Him.

Charged with obtaining money under false pretenses a young man giving his name as H. Burgess is locked up at the county jail in Winona, having been arrested yesterday at Dakota, Minn., by Sheriff Martin Lins on a warrant sworn out by Chief Schoenig of the Winona police department.

Burgess, it is alleged, was in that city some weeks ago at which time he claimed to be an agent for a large jewelry house. He made a business of appointing agents for his company and agreed to furnish a complete traveling outfit of samples for $15. While there Burgess made a deal with a young man named Arthur Ibert and secured a deposit of $15 in cash for the traveling outfit which was never delivered to Ibert.

The matter was not reported to the local authorities until after Burgess had left the city. The authorities located the man at Eau Claire where it is alleged that he turned several tricks similar to the one turned here. The fellow got away from Eau Claire in safety and the authorities only located him yesterday at Dakota.

BODY OF JOHNSON BOY IS LAID AWAY IN OAK GROVE

Details of Sad Drowning of Young La Crosse Man in West—Probably Slipped From Boom, But None Saw

The body of John Fritz Johnson, who was drowned at Portland, Ore., last Friday, arrived here at noon today and will be buried in Oak Grove cemetery tomorrow afternoon.

Short services were held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Johnson, 1308 Mississippi, at 1:30 o'clock after which the remains were taken to the West avenue Norwegian Lutheran church, where the regular church services were conducted at 2:30.

Particulars of the sad drowning show that Mr. Johnson must have been walking along a boom on his way to work, when he either slipped or made a misstep which threw him into the water.

As far as can be learned there were no eye witnesses to the accident but his absence was soon noticed by his companions and the finding of his hat and lunch box floating on the water indicated only too well what had happened. Searching parties immediately began to drag the river bottom and the body was found and brought to the surface within a half hour from the time the young man had been last seen alive, but life was already extinct.

John Fritz Johnson was born in La Crosse on Dec. 22nd, 1882, and lived here with his parents all his life up to about two months ago when he left to seek his fortune in the west. He received a good common school education, graduating from the Sixth District school and only recently he completed a course in one of the local business colleges. There is no doubt but what the position he held at the time of his death was but temporary as he had expected to secure office employment.

He leaves a mother, father and sister to mourn his untimely death, also a host of friends as he was well liked by all who knew him.

SECRETARY ISSUED EXPLANATION OF SON'S TRIP TO ALASKA

Game Was in Danger And He Shut Down on the Permits

Washington, Aug. 3.—Secretary Wilson has issued a statement relating to a charge that his son and private secretary, Jasper Wilson, made a trip to Alaska about a year and a half ago at the expense of the department. The statement follows: "There was a dispute between the miners of Alaska and other people not living in Alaska with regard to the condition of the game there. It had been reported to me by some of our scientists that the game was abundant and the supply in no danger of exhaustion."

Alaskans Put in a Protest.

"Delegations from Alaska came here protesting bitterly against sending anybody in there with permission to shoot and bring out trophies. Congress had given me power to grant permits, and we were giving them freely for awhile. Foreign noblemen wanted to go in there, shoot and get trophies; and they would shoot and shoot until they got as good a specimen as they wanted, leaving the carcasses of the others to rot."

Miners Wanted the Same.

"The miners claimed that they lived there in the winter; that the game was a resource which often stood between them and starvation. They thought it ought to be left there for their use. So here was the dispute; here was the demand for permits to hunt, kill, and bring out trophies, and I wanted to know the real facts."

Secretary Sent to Look Around.

"I sent my private secretary up there with certain instructions where to go and what to find out, and he was to bring back a report to me. This he did. He was a salaried officer here. The department paid his actual traveling expenses, of course. I send men all over the world for information, and for this or that."

Shuts Down on the Permits.

"Upon receipt of my private secretary's report I shut down on the granting of permits to everybody except persons representing museums and other educational institutions. Since that time no permits have been given."

One Point Not Determined.

"There is one point to be determined, and one only; and that I cannot decide without more information. It is whether the heads of animals killed in the winter for meat might not be brought out as trophies. I think they might be, provided we can make arrangements to have it done without encouraging pot hunters. So the matter rests at this time."

MORNING FIRE IN CHICKEN COOP

At 2 o'clock this morning fire company No. 2 was called to the home of John Chapiewski in the 600 block on Charles street where a woodshed and a chicken coop were ablaze. The fire illuminated the sky so that residents of the vicinity of Grand Crossing thought that the entire south end of the north side was on fire.

The fire department quickly extinguished it, however.

About this time another alarm was sent in from box 41 at the corner of Island and Mill streets. Company No. 4 made a long run to the box, but no one was there when they arrived. It is not known how the fire started but it is supposed that it was of incendiary origin, as no one was up at that hour of the night.

TEAM THROW DRIVER TO STREET

The team belonging to the Schulze Sash & Door Co. had a mixup at the corner of Rose and St. James streets during which a wheel came off the wagon and hurled the driver into the street.

He was not injured, however, and the team did no further damage.

Bucket Brigade Saved House

About six o'clock last evening the home of Bart Weber of 507 Caledonia street caught fire.

It is supposed to have ignited from a defective chimney and a portion of the roof was consumed. The damage was $50.

The fire department was not called, but a bucket brigade was formed and the fire was quickly extinguished.

MANY LA CROSSE METHO- DISTIS ATTEND MEETING

La Crosse & Southeastern Affords Unusual Opportunity for Church People to Spend Day at Viroqua.

This is the opening day of the annual Methodist camp meeting in Viroqua and a number of La Crosse Methodists left over the La Crosse & Southeastern today to attend. Others will leave later and during the meeting parties will be made up to go down from this city and spend a day or two at a time. The opening of the La Crosse & Southeastern assures a larger attendance from this city than ever before.

The grounds are in nice condition and all things promise well for the encampment. Revs. Hart and McGinn, who will conduct the preaching and singing, have reputations as successful religious workers, and Miss Schoenberger, the deaconess, will be children's and young people's leader. The first service is Thursday evening at 7:30, song service, followed with preaching by Rev. Hart. Children's hour is Friday at 4 o'clock.

UNITED STATES WAR VETER- ANS TO GO TO MILWAU- KEE IN SEPTEMBER.

The second annual convention and reunion of the national encampment of the United States War Veterans will be held in Milwaukee on Sept. 7-9. This is going to be the first real convention the organization has held since the consolidation of the three organizations of which it is composed. The Spanish American War Veterans and the United States Men were consolidated into the order under the name of the United Spanish War Veterans. This order has a membership of 75,000 and the indications for quite a large number being present are favorable. The committee in charge has received reports from a great number of the camps and at present the outlook is good for an attendance of about 8,000. The committee are: G. A. Armitage, C. J. Van Etta, A. J. Baum, J. A. Kramer, M. Grossman, O. A. Wagner,

F. E. Reed, P. C. Kammerer, O. F. Pritchard, C. F. Ludington, J. A. Watrous and J. McNary. Invitations have been extended to all the governors of the various states and to a great many distinguished military men. Answers have been received from two of the generals of the late war promising attendance; the remainder of the invitations were but recently extended and not enough time has lapsed for answers. President Theodore Roosevelt, who is a member of the order, and attended both the conventions at Detroit and Indianapolis, has been earnestly solicited to attend and from the regard with which he looks on the order it is very probable that a favorable answer will be received from him. It is quite probable that some of the Portage veterans may attend.

MUTE PATHOS IN WILL OF MURDERER-SUICIDE

"Take My Body Home," He Wrote,
But the Relatives Would Not Grant His Last Request.

Henry Morrison, who was sent up from Richland Center for murdering his wife and child and who suicided in Waupun prison a few days ago, left numerous directions as to the disposition to be made of his property and body.

On searching Morrison's cell the following letters were found written in pencil on pieces of paper and the blank sides of envelopes:

"H. A. Morrison wants his body sent to Richland Center in care of F. W. Burnham and he will send it to Woodstock to be laid at the side of my family and he will phone to my folks. I hope you will grant me this request and let Fred Stevenson send my letters to my daughter and sister as they are marked, give him my shoes and what is in my cell and oblige."
H. A. MORRISON.

"If there is any money here please send to Carrie Morrison, Woodstock, Richland county, Wis., in care of Cale Norman."

"If Burham ain't there Mr. Cale

Norman at Woodstock, Richland county, will receive my body and see to it and Mr. Burham will pay him for his trouble."

"H. A. MORRISON."
"You can send my money to him to give it to Carrie Morrison as he is guardian for her."

"Mr. Fred Stevenson, Sir—Please send those letters as they are marked Mrs. Minnie Duke, Valley P. O., Vernon Co., Wis., and Mrs. Mary Wilson, Viroqua, Vernon Co., Wis., and take my shoes and what is in my cell and oblige, yours. H. A. MORRISON."

"Please direct them so they will be sure to get them."

"Let John Simplot take my bow glasses to my sister, Jane Robinson, Black River Falls, and oblige."

"I want my little girl, Carrie, to have all that will be left of my property."

The prison authorities corresponded with the parties mentioned in Morrison's letters, but at their request his body was buried at the prison farm.

DR. COOMS FINDS HAVEN IN POOR HOUSE

Dr. Coomes, the elderly spectacle dealer who attempted to suicide in Preston last week, has been committed to the poor farm there, where he will probably spend his declining days. The old man has no friends to care for him and is getting too feeble to work. Preston county authorities will make him as comfortable as possible at the farm and he will no doubt in the course of time be contented there.

All Mail Boxes Will be Paint- ed Green.

Rural mail boxes are to be green, according to an order received by Postmaster Tscharnier. All letter boxes, mail package boxes and the posts supporting both classes of boxes will be painted that hue. The paint will be sent in bulk from Washington and applied by painters selected by the local postmasters. This is in accordance with the general scheme of the postoffice department to change the color of mail boxes all over the country from aluminum to green as fast as they need repainting. The aluminum paint has been unsatisfactory. It was selected on the theory that it would prevent the boxes from rusting, but it has failed to do so.

A committee was appointed to select a new paint. After going into the subject thoroughly and consulting officers of the navy as to the best paint in use on transports and war vessels, the committee unanimously selected green.

Farmer Loses $25,000 Trying to Avoid Taxes.

MONTROSE, Iowa, Aug. 3.—In his eagerness to avoid paying $600 taxes, William Andrews, a wealthy farmer, lost $25,000. When a tax ferret noticed him he must pay back taxes on this money, which he had not listed, Andrews thought he would be foxy. So he took the money from the bank in gold and greenbacks, put it in two buckets and buried the buckets in his barn. Nellies Carns, a servant, happened to be in the hayloft and saw him. She told her lover, Louis Voss, and when Andrews went to look at the money again it had disappeared. Now the girl confesses that Voss took it, but he has disappeared.

DOG DISCHARGES GUN, SHOOTING HIS MASTER

Wm. Hoffman, a farmer residing near Lancaster, was the victim of a peculiar accident. He was engaged in mowing grass when his son went to the field with a loaded rifle. The lad laid the weapon on the ground under a tree and went away. Soon after the house dog went along and stepped on the trigger of the rifle, discharging it. Mr. Hoffman was about forty yards from the spot and was struck in the leg by the bullet, which made an ugly wound.

BOY FALLS IN TANK OF BOIL- ING WATER

News is received here from Kaukon Junction, south of here on the Mississippi of a fatal accident in which ten-year-old Roy Spinner of Waterville lost his life.

The boy, together with his father and some others, were camping on the islands, and it seems in order to build a boat they heated a clam tank of water to soak the lumber in. After they had taken the lumber out the boy in walking about by some means fell into the tank. One of the men near by immediately grabbed him and ran into the river with him. They then took him to Waukon in hopes of catching the afternoon train for home but were a little too late. He was then taken to the Blackwell hotel where he received the best of care and attention and Dr. Bassler of Harpers' Ferry was sent for. The boy did not seem to suffer much pain but died the next morning at 5 o'clock.

The water has been so high up to this time that but little work could be done and hence but a small crew has been employed. This crew, however, has now piled up on the shore near the sites of the new dams thousands of yards of brush and other material and everything is in readiness to begin the actual work of laying the dams.

OUR THREATENED EXPORT TRADE.

Reciprocity, or trade isolation and loss of our export trade, is now the most important issue before the American people. The principal nations of Europe threaten to exclude the products of other countries by prohibitory and discriminative duties, unless they consent to trade treaties which will permit an exchange of certain products, subject to moderate and non-restrictive rates of duty.

Leading commercial bodies throughout the United States are striving hard to avert that calamity, by influencing senators to favor a policy of reciprocity. For that purpose they have appealed to business interests and citizens generally to write their senators, urging them to cooperate with the administration in the negotiation and ratification of reciprocity treaties.

Reciprocity treaties are especially desirable in the case of such important markets as Germany, France and Canada, and numerous South American nations, whereby markets already of importance and likely to become vast consumers in the near future would be more accessible to our manufacturers.

In the case of Canada, reciprocity would be a double benefit. Our supplies of lumber are rapidly becoming depleted. If Canadian lumber were admitted free, it would greatly benefit the citizens of this country by making building cheaper. At no distant day, Northwestern Canada will become the seat of a great population, and a joint modification of the tariff laws of the two countries would give us command of that immense trade for our manufactured products.

It is remarkable how widespread among people of all classes throughout the country, and particularly among the agricultural and manufacturing interests, the sentiment for reciprocal trade relations with foreign countries has become, but as, after all, the accomplishment of this purpose rests with congress, the only effective way for the people to make their wishes known is for every merchant, manufacturer, and agriculturist to write personally to his representative in congress, expressing his views and desires in this matter.

And still this maddening silence.

Well! Well! William.

We all know W. E. Beddow's penchant for gorgeous and noticeable raiment, and this is the trouble it got him into at Dubuque. He stops at the Hotel Wales so frequently that he is well known to the dining room girls.

One morning during the recent hot spell he came into breakfast clad in an immaculate pair of white trousers. The head waitress tapped him on the shoulder and in a semi-confidential penetrating whisper said:

"Excuse me, Mr. Beddow, haven't you forgotten something this morning?"

"Why, I guess not," replied William, smiling all over and looking triumphantly at the other boarders at this indication of the young lady's interest, "what?"

"Haven't you forgotten to put on—a—your pants?"

They looked like pajamas and "what could the poor girl do!"— the most insidious scourges known to civilization.

It may be that only a queen infests a building. She comes unnoticed, herself during the day and traveling at night. Soon she comes to a house, and begins gnawing her way into a foundation post.

With a faint scraping sound the pincers of the solitary insect move to and fro across the surface. Particulate after particle of wood is eaten, and gradually the body of the dorker disappears into the piece attacked. As the queen eats she passes the excretion behind her and this she consumes time after time until the only trace of wood removed is an almost imperceptible powder which may be blown away by the lightest wind.

Every day for weeks the queen brings into the world about 85,000 eggs, which quickly hatch. Gradually the colony advances, eating to the very surface, but never penetrating to the outside.

Except the outer shell and the nails and bolts with which the timber is held in place the ant eats everything.

Opportunity may be making a still hunt for YOU today. Satisfy yourself about the matter by reading the want ads. with both eyes open.

THE SPECTATOR.

Neither Chief of Police Byrne or Undersheriff Scott, the two most experienced tracers of criminals in La Crosse, believe that postoffice robber and safeblower Earl Trainor will be caught within the next few weeks. They advance the theory that once away from the jail he will go into hiding in some secluded and safe spot until he thinks the officers have given up the chase. Then he will venture forth and make his way by a devious route to a rendezvous of his gang, if he belongs to one, and with one or two companions in crime will next be heard of in some portion of the country far removed from La Crosse. There is always the possibility, however, that secret service men or police will unearth him in his hiding place or that some officer will identify him on the street of some city a long way from La Crosse. Trainor is a marked man and will surely be in the toils of the law again if he lives long enough.

RETAILERS ADVISED TO OBSERVE THE FOOD LAW.

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 3.—The big wholesale houses of Chicago are urging their patrons in Wisconsin to post themselves on the new pure food laws of the state and to be careful to comply with them. State Dairy and Food Commissioner Emery said today that he would exert himself to see that the laws were strictly observed as soon as they became effective. In the meantime dealers, he believed, would show good business judgment by disposing of goods that are to come under the ban of the law.

ASSEMBLY SEEKS FREEDOM FROM ITS TAXES

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 3.—The Monona Lake assembly, which owns property on the south shore of Lake Monona here, valued at some $50,000 is considering the changing of its name and the revision of its articles of incorporation so as to come under the statute which exempts from taxation church and educational property. The annual meeting of the board of directors was held yesterday at the assembly grounds, at which Messrs. Wayne, Ramsay, T. C. Richmond and Mrs. W. S. Main were elected directors. Mr. Richmond was elected over the Rev. Dr. E. G. Updike of Madison.

PLANS FOR PLATTVILLE NORMAL

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 3.—The executive committee of the board of normal school regents yesterday consulted with architects and considered plans for the proposed new state normal school building to replace the old structure at Plattville. For this new school the last legislature appropriated $150,000. The architects whose plans were examined were H. C. Koch & Son of Milwaukee; A. Van Ryn & D. E. Gelleke of Milwaukee, and William Waters of Oshkosh.

Fever Victims Increase

New Orleans, Aug. 3.—The reports of the fever situation show an increase in the number of deaths, but the health authorities confess no alarm over the situation, and say that more fatalities were to be looked for from the fact in the past three or four days there has been a sufficient increase in the number of cases to warrant the expectation of heavier mortality. High temperatures succeeded by heavy precipitation and cooler weather produced climatic conditions also favorable to fatalities.

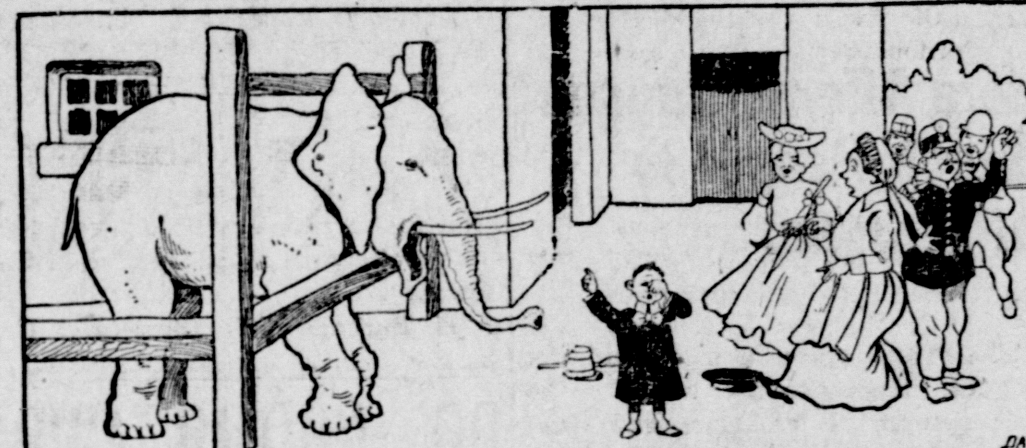

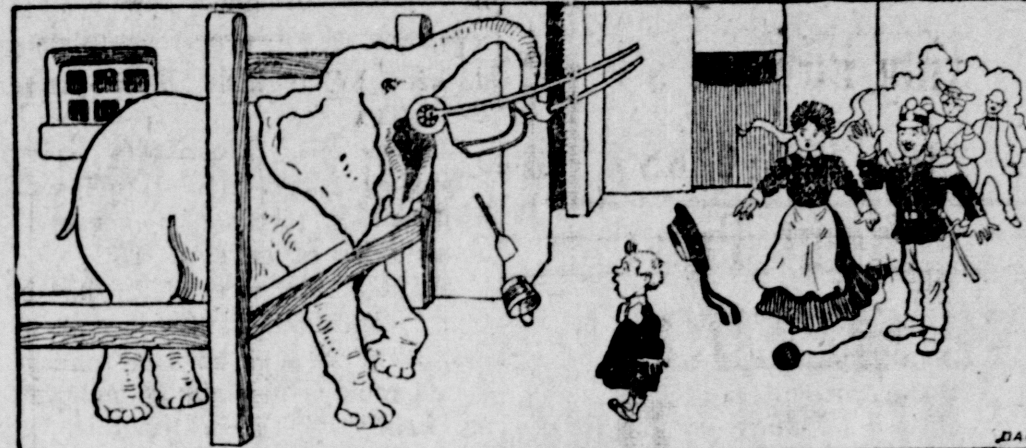

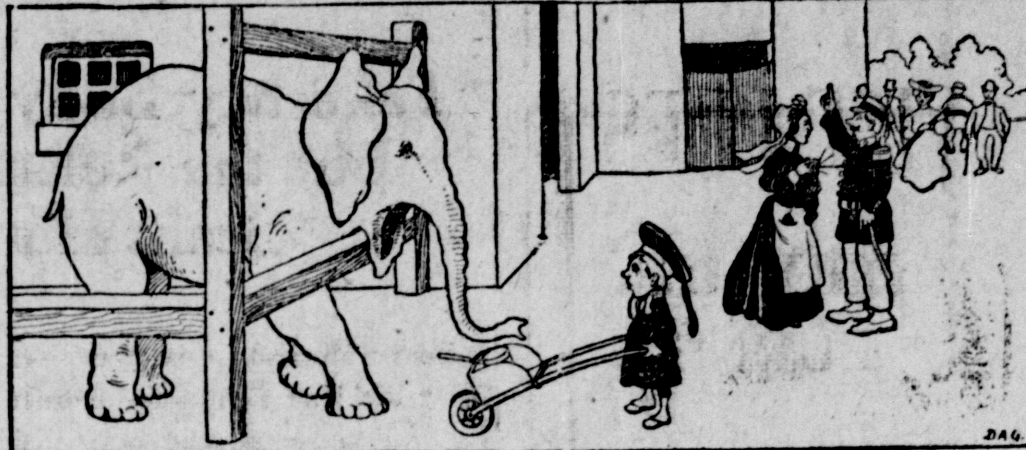

Practically all of the deaths were of Italians, and nearly all of them were either in the emergency hospital or in the district adjacent thereto. Some of the victims were unfortunately whose cases were only reported in the past two days, indicating that they were practically in a moribund condition when their illness was discovered. There was no dissent among the authorities from the view expressed by Health Officer Kohnke, that conditions were hopeful.

No apprehension exists of any serious results from the trouble that has arisen on the Mississippi-Louisiana border over the enforcement of the Mississippi quarantine.

JUBILEE OF THE GREAT SOO BEGINS WITH WATER PARADE

VICE-PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS IS LUSTILY CHEERED BY CROWDS.

King Edward's Portrait in Fireworks at the Night Program.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 3.—An elaborate display of fireworks, participated in jointly by Canadians and citizens of the United States, concluded the first day of the exercises in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the Sault Ste. Marie ship canal. The Canadian government contributed liberally to the exhibition, and Canadians showed great enthusiasm. Hundreds of persons lined both sides of the river to witness the displays. Both Canadians and citizens of the United States gave three cheers as a mammoth pyrotechnic portrait of King Edward was shown, while bands on the water front played British and United States patriotic airs.

Grand Illumination at Night.

The city was illuminated at night. All canal structures of both governments, and the streets generally, were lighted by thousands of incandescent lights, Japanese lanterns being used in the government park. Previous to the fireworks display Governor Warner, of Michigan, received, in the government park, Vice President Fairbanks, who took part in the exercises and will be the principal speaker today.

Welcome to the Vice President.

During the day the principal events were an impressive parade of government and other vessels and Canadian ships up St. Mary's river through the Canadian locks, and a military procession. Large crowds lined the walls of the Canadian and the American locks after a dozen boats had entered at one time, and gave Vice President Fairbanks, aboard the revenue cutter Tuscarora, an enthusiastic welcome. Scores of steamers in the harbor joined in the demonstration, and kept up a deafening din for some time.

Much Bunting Is Flying.

Decorations were a feature of the celebration and through the main streets and on the government canal buildings were the national colors found in festoons. All the vessels in the harbor were likewise decorated. On the government boats, from the bow to the mastsheads and down to the stern were flags hung in rainbow fashion.

STORY OF THE NAVAL PARADE

Long Line of Vessel Passes Through Two Great Locks.

Crowds gathered along the water front to witness the naval parade, and steamers on the river were filled with spectators. Charles W. Fairbanks, who is the first vice president the Soo has had a chance to entertain, embarked at 9 a. m. on the United States steamer Tuscarora. As the boat steamed ahead boat whistles were blown generally, the din continuing for some minutes. As it subsided bands at the government park played popular and patriotic airs. At the same time Governor Warner, of Michigan, and his staff boarded the United States revenue cutter Morrell, the steamer Mackinac meanwhile receiving guests. The remainder of the revenue cutter fleet then steamed out into the river, followed by numerous other vessels, and entered the Poe lock. On leaving the lock the vessels in parade form passed up the river, maintaining an interval of 300 yards, and each vessel following a little on the port quarter of the boat ahead of her. Above the lock, when entering Canadian waters, the United States vessels slowed down, permitting the Canadian vessels to pass to the head of the column and enter the Canadian lock. These vessels retained the lead of the column until crossing to the United States side of the river, when they dropped into their positions in the line, the revenue cutters taking the lead again.

The fleet moved up the river passing near the United States steamship Wolverine at anchor off the government park. Vice President Fairbanks left the Tuscarora at this point, and boarded the Wolverine to review the procession. Upon her departure the Tuscarora fired a salute of nineteen guns for the vice president, and Governor Warner's staff left the Morrell also, and boarded the Wolverine. As the Morrell left it fired a governor's salute of seventeen guns. The fleet then steamed a short distance away, while the Wolverine and the guns of Fort Brady fired salutes for the vice president and the governor as each left that ship, after which the procession disbanded.

FRIENDS WOULD PUT UP MILLION FOR MISSING MAYOR

Paterson, N. J., Aug. 3.—After a meeting of business men in Mayor Belcher's office a statement was given out that his friends will put up $1,000,000 if necessary to relieve his financial strain on condition that he return to Paterson. Mayor Belcher has not been seen or heard from since Tuesday afternoon, and his friends fear he may have committed suicide.

The mayor has been worried by the investigation of certain collateral he had given for loans and the report by the state banking department that signatures on part of the collateral had been forged. Belcher told his secretary that he intended to go to his country home at Midvale, but inquiry showed that he had not been there.

FOOL FRIENDS QUEER A JOKER'S WEDDING

Eastport, Me., Aug. 3.—W. S. Alexander is waiting impatiently for the next one of his bachelor friends to be married that he may retaliate for the treatment he received at his own wedding. At his wedding reception he was kidnapped, handcuffed, ridden through town, imprisoned in two watermelon crates and was liberally wet down and covered with paste en route. When he was released his dress clothes were a mess of flour paste.

Alexander has been a leader in a set of practical jokes, who made life unhappy for any bridegroom of their crowd. While the reception was in progress at the home of the bride's parents the conspirators hustled Alexander to the kitchen, gagged him, handcuffed him and tied his feet. Then they boxed him up in watermelon crates and put him in a dump cart. The cart was driven all over town, and flour, rice and water were thrown on him.

OUR ARISTOCRACY RANGES FROM BAD WHISKY TO STANDARD OIL

New York, Aug. 3.—Comparing the American and European types of aristocracy, Colonel Henry Waterson, who has returned on the steamer Oceanic from a trip to Europe, said: "I observed European aristocracy pretty closely while I was over there, and I have arrived at the conclusion that foreign aristocracy is of a much better grade than the American article. There aristocracy means lineage and brains. Here—well it ranges chiefly from bad whisky to Standard Oil."

Waterson said that he had read the accounts of the scandal in the department of agriculture and added: "I have often wondered how so many scientific men connected with the government at comparatively small salaries could live so well. It only goes to show that the college man is not a success in politics."

Prince Karl of Denmark for Norwegian Throne, Says Kaiser

Copenhagen, Aug. 3.—Since his arrival at the Danish court, Emperor William appears to have become convinced that there is no hope of a prince of the house of Bernadotte becoming king of Norway. His majesty now favors Prince Charles of Denmark, and he is quoted as saying: "If Prince Charles does not become king, Norway will be a republic. Of course I prefer a monarchy, and, therefore shall hereafter support the candidacy of Prince Karl."

King Christian and some of the Danish princes had luncheon with Emperor William on the Hohenzoellern. The emperor invited Prince Harold, son of Crown Prince Frederick, to attend the German maneuvers. After luncheon the king bade farewell to the emperor.

FIFTY CENTS ON A DOLLAR TO BE PAID BY BANK

Crawfordsville, Ind., Aug. 3.—James C. Knox, receiver of the Bank of Ladoga, has filed a petition with Judge West in which he asks to be permitted to pay the depositors of the Bank of Ladoga, which failed several weeks ago, 50 cents on the dollar. Judge West ordered the receiver to make payment as set forth in his petition. The petition declares the total indebtedness of the bank to be $99,277.43, $76,659.45 of which is due depositors.

Eleven stockholders of the bank have made a voluntary assessment upon themselves aggregating $40,000 in order to enable the receiver to make the payment. Receiver Knox also states that he has received from notes, bills, and other accounts $25,000 more. He also asks in connection with the above petition to sell for a sum not less than the appraised value of the plant the Spencer Novelty plant, formerly known as the Roundtable Novelty and Wood-working company.

He Just Had To Kiss Her

Middletown, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Charged with disgracing the United States army uniform on the public streets, William Babcock, 27 years old, was taken in charge by a policeman here. The charge was that while Babcock, accompanied by a young woman, was passing through one of the streets of this city he stopped every little while and hugged and kissed his companion, regardless of the presence of many amused spectators.

When arraigned Babcock said that he and the young woman had just been married and that he couldn't control his feelings. He also said that the army uniform had belonged to a brother who had served in the regular army and who had died. The couple was discharged.

TELEGRAPHERS STRIKE GENERAL

St. P. The strike of the telegraph operators of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railway systems has settled into what promises to be a long drawn out contest between two of the largest railroads of the west and a combination of employees who claim to have the power to tie up the money-making end of these two railroads so that the companies will be willing to grant their demands. From the admissions of the managers of the two lines it seems that the men went out nearly unanimously at the strike order. Perhaps says that 1,500 men are on strike, which includes pretty near all the telegraphers on the two lines.

General Manager Horn, of the Northern Pacific, gives the situation from the railway point of view, admitting that the men generally have struck. He says that passenger trains are running close to schedule, but that the strike has interfered with the freight movement to a greater extent. Meantime the company is making arrangements to fill the places of the strikers. The worst feature of the situation is the accumulation of perishable freight in commission houses at St. Paul and other points. The railway officials charge the strikers with tampering with signals and wires.

FOUR LA CROSSE MILITIAMEN AMONG THE 24 HIGH AT STATE RIFLE CAMP.

Private Fowler and Sergeant Kleist of Company M, and Sergt. Roemer and Artificer Storkerson of Company B, were among the 24 high men in the rifle camp contests at Camp Douglas yesterday. All the La Crosse men made good scores.

Competition firing began yesterday with the regular army marksman's course, which consists of ten shots each at 200, 300, 500 and 600 yards slow fire; 200 and 300 yards rapid fire, and two skirmish runs of twenty shots each. Eighty-three riflemen fired in the competition. The average of the scores made was excellent, and probably the best ever seen on the range. The twelve high scores out of a possible 500 were:

Color Sergeant Schlick, First regiment, 42, 42, 447, 37, 47, 39, 84, 74, Total, 419.
Sergeant S. J. Olson, Company C, First regiment, 41, 41, 42, 41, 49, 44, 75, 64, Total, 397.
Sergeant Comer, Company D, Third regiment, 39, 45, 47, 43, 42, 47, 70, 60, Total, 393.
Corporal Hagen, Company A, Tenth battalion, 43, 43, 44, 39, 43, 49, 72, 54, Total, 378.

Private Fowler, Company M, Third regiment, 40, 41, 44, 34, 38, 49, 64, 63, Total, 373.
Sergeant Bailey, Company C, Third regiment, 43, 42, 41, 44, 44, 49, 71, 38, Total, 372.

Private Russell, Company L, Second regiment, 45, 42, 42, 39, 42, 49, 72, 43, Total, 371.
Corporal Lehn, Company A, Tenth battalion, 39, 43, 43, 38, 34, 48, 69, 55, Total, 369.

Sergeant J. E. Olson, Company A, Tenth battalion, 42, 38, 38, 36, 42, 50, 57, 60, Total, 363.
Color Sergeant Meske, First regiment, 42, 44, 40, 37, 48, 38, 55, 58, Total, 362.

Private O. J. Olson, Company C, First regiment, 40, 44, 45, 41, 49, 44, 60, 38, Total, 361.
Sergeant Schwandt, Company G,

Second regiment, 38, 42, 43, 40, 46, 47, 50, 53, Total, 359.

New D. M.'s."

In the record firing for the rank of distinguished marksman over the same course the twelve high men were:

Private Russell, Company L, Second regiment, 371.

Corp Lehn, Company A, Tenth battalion, 369.

Sergt. J. E. Olson, Company A, Tenth battalion, 363.

Sergt. Schultz, company F, Third regiment, 357.

Sergt. Kleist, Company M, Third regiment, 351.

Sergt. Kampe, Company M, Second regiment, 349.

Sergt. A. Smith, Company A, First regiment, 345.

Sergt. Mueller, Company G, Third regiment, 344.

Sergt. Roemer, Company B, Third regiment, 341.

Corp. Schneller, Company G, Second regiment, 341.

Artificer Storkerson, Company B, Third regiment, 337.

Private Stewart, Company E, First regiment, 333.

The range record for fixed distance firing in this course, which for some time had stood at 172 out of a possible 200, but was reestablished last week at 173, was again broken by Sergeant Comer of Company D, Third regiment, who scored 174. Another notable performance of the day was a clean score of 50 at 300 yards, rapid fire, made by Sergeant J. E. Olson of Company A, Tenth battalion.

Col. Graham, inspector of small arms practice, said last evening that work of the range yesterday eclipsed any similar day's work he had ever seen in his connection with rifle work in Wisconsin. By his work yesterday Color Sergeant Schlick of Milwaukee has not only gained such a long lead in his aggregate score as to make him the probable winner of the new Third regiment prize of a gold watch, but by his two skirmish runs of 84 and 74 has practically clinched the Falk medal offered for the highest skirmish score, as his figures are not likely to be beaten. Sergeant Schlick will be compelled to choose which prize he will take.

STORY OF ROMANCE OF HAZY HYDE AND GLADYS DEACON

FAMILY FIGURED IN BIG SCANDAL

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 3.—Within the last week the rumor has become current in Newport's smart set that James Hazen Hyde, former vice president of the Equitable society, is here looking for a bride. The young woman with whom his name is associated is Miss Gladys Deacon, at one time mentioned as the prospective bride of the crown prince of Germany, who, during their courtship, bestowed upon her a ring which his royal mother had presented to him. The ring was afterward returned at the kaiser's urgent personal request.

Miss Deacon is the daughter of Parker Deacon of Boston, who several years ago furnished the season's scandal by shooting Monsieur Abielle in his wife's apartment in Paris. Her mother was the daughter of the late Admiral Charles H. Baldwin of the United States navy by his first wife.

Miss Deacon was brought here from Paris by her stepmother, the admiral's second wife, this season and tendered a handsome coming out party at Snug Harbor, the Baldwin villa, which all the leading cottagers and the officers of Amiral Evans' fleet attended. It was the biggest debutante affair that ever took place in Newport.

Mr. Hyde, who had frequently met Miss Deacon on his visits to Paris ever since he came here, has been most assiduous in his attentions to her, and now, having completed his visit with T. Saffern Taylor, has gone to spend a week at Snug Harbor, which is regarded as significant.

Mr. Hyde has made a favorable impression here. Paul Morton, the present head of the Equitable Assurance society, and he has touched knees under the mahogany of many of the prominent cottagers, who entertained them. Mr. Morton and Mr. Hyde are firm friends, and the former never snubbed Mr. Hyde as has been stated. Mr. Morton has personally denied that any such affront was offered by him to Mr. Hyde.

Green Bay City Officers Re- sign.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Aug. 3.—In accordance with the anti-press law two Green Bay officials have resigned their positions. They are J. P. Hogan, cashier of the North-Western freight depot, who was a member of the board of fire and police commissioners, and J. L. Wilcox, a special land agent in the interests of the North-Western extension from Manitowoc to Gillett. He resigned as member of the school board.

CITY WON'T ACCEPT RESIGNATION OF OFFICIAL.

OCONTO, Wis., Aug. 3.—The common council has refused to accept the resignation of P. H. Badon, from the office of member of the board of education, which was tendered on account of the fact that his contract with the railroad company conflicted with chapter 486, laws of 1905, which provides that no publisher having a contract with any railroad company for advertising shall be paid for his transportation, if he at the same time occupies any office provided for by the constitution of the state or any state law or any city ordinance. He is the publisher of the Oconto Enterprise and as such has contracts with numerous railroads for advertising to be paid in transportation. Owing to this law he deemed it advisable to tender his resignation.

FISHWAYS MUST BE OPEN TO ALL DAMS.

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 3.—The last legislature passed a law which compels all dam owners to have fishways placed in their dams.

"The fish commission," said Commissioner Nevin today, "has secured the right to use what is known as the Hockin fishway of Nova Scotia. This fishway is exceedingly practicable and will be of good service, as the fish will not find it difficult to ascend the fishway to the waters above the dam. The law says that fishways must be placed in all dams where game fish exist in the stream below.

"The state fish commission will start a man on the road examining these dams, and locating places where fishways should be placed. The commission will endeavor to have fishways placed at all the dams in the larger rivers of the state, including the Fox, Wolf, Peshtigo, Menominee, Lac du Flambeau, Wisconsin, Chippewa, Trempealeau, Black, Red Cedar, Nanackagon, and many others. All those wanting plans and specifications for building fishway can get them by making application to the fish commissioner's office at Madison."
